v.

Estanislao Rodriguez /

Defendant

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

Case Number: 04-90036

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. §3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case.

Part I – Findings of FactT (1) I find that:T there is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offenseT for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C. § 841 or 846;“ under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c).

T” (2) I further find that the defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.

Alternative Findings

“ I find that the government has established by a preponderance of the evidence that there is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.

“ I find that the government has established by clear and convincing evidence that there is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

Part II – Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

T I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing established the following factors under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g):

T (a) nature of the offense - Large scale drug distribution (>500 grams cocaine).T (b) weight of the evidence -Very strong - defendant admitted the offense.T (c) history and characteristics of the defendant - Resident alien - excludable upon conviction.T 1) physical and mental condition - Good health.T 2) employment, financial, family ties - Employment/family in Indiana.T 3) criminal history and record of appearance - Failed to appear for Pretrial Supervision and for Preliminary Exam. Fugitive for two years.“ (d) probation, parole or bond at time of the alleged offense -“ (e) danger to another person or community -

This is a presumption case. This defendant absconded from bond at the complaint stage and remained out of state for two years until his arrest. Pretrial Services recommends detention and I fully agree.

Part III – Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
